

THIS FORM IS TO HELP YOU PLAN YOUR APPLICATION ONLY
THIS IS NOT AN ENTRY FORM
ALL ENTRIES MUST BE SUBMITTED VIA THE DIGITAL FORM ON THE WEBSITE AT BBEA.COM.AU APPLICATIONS CLOSE WEDNESDAY MAY 31, 11.59PM

Not-for-profit Award 2023

Presented by RIAC

For organisations where a positive social impact is at the core of their purpose. They are applying innovative solutions to address social issues and better the community we live in. Open to not-for-profit, social enterprise and profit-for-purpose organisations operating in Greater Bendigo.

Entry Criteria

- To enter this category, your business must be located in the the Greater Bendigo Local Government Area
- The business must have been trading for a minimum of three years.

If you are a new business, trading for between 12 months and three years, you may wish to enter the Emerging and Energised category. Businesses who have been trading for less than 12 months are not eligible to enter.

For queries about eligibility, please contact awards support at bbea@lostcauseevents.com.au

For extended entry criteria and disqualifying criteria, see digital forms or T&Cs on website.

1. Outline the vision, values and purpose of your business.

More information / What the judges are looking for: Clearly detail the vision for your business, the values your business aspires to operate within and why your business exists. Make sure you explain why these answers are important to you and your business partners.

a) Vision:

b) Values:

c) Purpose:

2. What does your business do? Detail your products and/or services:

More information / What the judges are looking for: Assume the judges know nothing about your business and product, and explain exactly what your business does, who it services and the product it sells. Detail who your customers are and how your business fits within the local business community.

3. Describe the background to your business and how it generally operates.

More information / What the judges are looking for: Where has your business come from? What has made your product or service relevant? What is the core business structure and how does this support your daily operations? What systems do you need to be effective and efficient?

4. What do you consider your greatest business achievement or learning experience to date and why?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Is there something that has happened to you or to the business that has elevated your success, or been a valuable learning experience? What happened, and why is it important?

5. Outline how you market the business traditionally and digitally:

a) How do you attract new customers?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Clearly detail who are your target customers, how you identify them, how do you plan your marketing activities, and how you deliver them to attract new clients or customers. Explain how you measure the success of your activities.

b) How do you communicate with / retain existing customers/clients?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Explain the communication channels or processes you use, and why. What messages are most effective for your business? How do you measure the success of your communication processes and retention? If your business a community service or not within a traditional customer model, explain how you ensure your stakeholders know you exist and want to connect with you.

6. Describe how you use information you know about your customers to shape your business?

This can be data and information you collect internally, or industry reports and trends.

More information / What the judges are looking for: What information is collected and why is it important? How do you analyse it? How do you apply it to your business and why? Provide an example.

7. Tell us about your people and culture

(if you are the only person in your business, tell us about how you work with your contractors/partners)

a) How do you recruit new team members? What do you look for to ensure a good fit in your team?

More information / What the judges are looking for: What is your recruitment process, and why does it work well for your business? What specific areas align with your business and people culture to ensure a good fit? How does this impact your business?

b) What steps do you take to ensure your staff are engaged in and with the business?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Is there a process you have implemented to keep staff actively interested in the business? How do you know you have been successful? Do you monitor this? Provide an example if relevant.

c) From a leadership and strategy perspective how do you align your team and recruitment with the strategic goals of your business?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Examples of how your recruitment processes, and/or your leadership style supports your team to achieve the goals of the business.

8. Tell us about training in your business:

(if you are the only person in your business, tell us how you train and educate yourself)

More information / What the judges are looking for: Detail both the training/education provided, and why it is important to the employee and the business. Explain how you actively remain abreast of industry trends, and how you monitor employee professional development in your organisation.

a) Outline the types of training and development you offer or program for employees.

b) How often do you provide or deliver training?

9. How do you construct your annual budget?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Demonstrate sound financial knowledge of the business and budgeting whilst demonstrating how likely future financial impacts are factored in.

10. Business risks:

More information / What the judges are looking for: Demonstrate your understanding of the key risks for your specific business and industry, and if there is a framework or structured approach you use to identify, assess, minimise and monitor them.

a) Describe what are the key risks to your business?

b) How do you assess the size of these risks?

c) What do you do to minimise these risks?

11. How do you measure and manage your business performance?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Outline your general management practices, which key measurement indicators do you use and why, and how do you use these for decision making and planning?

12. Tell us something special about your business. What one story would you tell that highlights the best aspects of your business?

More information / What the judges are looking for: This is your chance to set your business apart from the other applicants! What is one story or highlight that is compelling and unique? This could include - your success story or business journey, an experience that changed your business, something that sets you apart for your competitors or how you are leading your market or industry.*

13. If you won an award for business excellence, what would this mean for you and your business?

More information / What the judges are looking for: How will you leverage the award to benefit your business? What will this mean for your team and clients?*

Business Excellence Awards

BE.BENDIGO
Bendigo Bank

CATEGORY SPECIFIC QUESTIONS

14. Describe the problem/need or community service that your organisation is working to support or fix, and the best case outcome that you are striving for.

b) How do you communicate this clearly to your team (paid and volunteers) and the wider community?

More information / What the judges are looking for: Judges are looking for a deeper understanding of the problem/need and the solution your business is striving for in the community, beyond what was provided in questions 1,2,3. What outcomes / changes for the community are you looking to implement that is within your control? How do you create advocates and passionate teams to support you?*

15. Explain the programs you deliver, and how you are able to deliver them, to support your sector of the community.

More information / What the judges are looking for: Provide information about the programs or services that your organisation delivers, and how you deliver them. How do you know they are needed, and how do you fund them? Judges want to know their impact, and how you measure their success. Consider using case study if relevant, or client feedback to support your information. If you require fundraising to deliver your programs, do you have a process in place that ensures transparency of funding use?*